CREATING LEADERS FOR THE FUTURE

The Summer Youth Leadership Program is an all expenses-paid program designed for high school youths and college freshmen that aims to develop leadership and communication skills. Participants have a chance to meet Asian American role models and leaders, discover Asian community resources, and build friendships with youths from other parts of the Puget Sound area.

The program includes a great field trip to University of Washington, and social service agencies in the International District, and free ethnic lunches every day. In addition students also have the opportunity to earn $200 to $500 in scholarships.

Some of our well-known speakers include Bob Santos, Lori Matsukawa, and University of Washington Provost Ana Mari Cauce.
